and Toleration. Truth, it tells, us, alone can produce. A lie, like the coaff, is barren. As the Earth, our great mother, rejects the chaff, so the soul of universal humanity revolts at falsehood. As the grain alone sustains the body, so Truth alone yields fruit and nourisbment to the soul, while falsehood, rotting and corrupting, wastes to nothing. Sown in whatever barren and rocky soil. Truth springs up, and yields an hundred fold, for use and blessing. Love, of which the sweet spring-flowers are an apt and fitting emblem, is the great gift and blessing of God, Light to the Soul, joy to the Heart, like the Light and Warmth of the sun to the hungry earth; and the soft accents of affection cheer and console the bruised and wounded spirit, as the fragrance of flowers is sweet in the chambers of sickness.

Human Love.

Consciousness of being loved gives comfort and strength, and makes trust in God a real, living feeling that influences the daily life. If there is no love above above as it all menture their glances of distances of disk upon us, and close their hands against as, then our hearts grow hard, and we find it difficult to raise set once, without the sid of human steps, above earthly pain and desolution to love and confidence in God; all has a tendency to become dark above as it is around; whereas love and kindless keep our hearts open; day, Haskell broke a cue over the negro's head, and he retailated by sticking a knife into Haskell's arm and taking a line fluence of the love and tendences of god—are His and the late of th the national games of Scotland were in-dulged in, to the gratification of great MALT AND SPIRITIOUS LIQUORS, erowds of spectators,

And surely Philosophy does much to assure us, that if we nonestly endeavor to live well, and to perform the duties of this life, the Angels of God, when we lie down to our last sleep in the narrow grave, will crown our spirits with sweet flowers, fresh gathered from the immortal trees of Paradise.
